HNR HOTEL NEWS

Introduction

Firstly, thank you for the opportunity to discuss partnering with your organization.

Nevistas and Hotel News Resource resulted from a happy accident in 1998. The internet was a virgin territory, and I was looking to combine my passion for hotels and technology, so I developed a content management system without realizing it. It featured a directory, news, and other content for anyone connected to the industry.

Over the years, it became an online information and knowledge base for the hotel, travel, and other hospitality industry segments.

Today, Hotel News Resource is in the Top 10 Ranking for most significant hotel and hotel industry-related search terms in Google, including hotel news, hotel industry news, hospitality news, hotel technology news, hotel marketing news, etc.

We utilize proprietary software, which we continually update and develop based on feedback from our partners, members, and subscribers.

Our team members, Amber, Daniel, Peter, Ridley, and, of course, I look forward to working with you.

The Future is Trust: a People-first Approach for the New Era of Hospitality - By Lize De Kock

So much has changed in the hospitality industry, but one thing is certain to stay the same. In fact, at TrustYou we have spent the last months talking to hundreds of independent and enterprise hoteliers, as well as destination marketers, about the power of trust. The conversations typically take the same direction: quality, communication, relationships. It has never been more important to make that human connection.
